

Declaration of consent for the issuance of a travel document

(to a minor under age 18 or a person who is under guardianship)

A minor under age 18 or a person who is under guardianship have to be accompanied by the legal representative respectively by a person having rights of custody.

This form has to be handed in duly completed and signed by the legal representative.

Moreover, a valid identity document of both legal representatives respectively the legal guardian have to be presented (a copy of the identity document of the non-present legal representative can be accepted).

Parental Care / legal representation (mark with a cross where applicable)

Married parents

- The declaration of consent is needed if only one of two persons having custody is able to present him-/herself in person.

Unmarried parents

- Single custody mother (Sole declaration of consent is sufficient)
- Single custody father (Declaration of consent, decision on custody with confirmation on entry into force)
- Joint custody (The declaration of consent and the decision on custody is needed only if one of two persons having custody is able to present her-/himself in person)

Divorced parents

- Single custody (Declaration of consent, decision on custody with confirmation on entry into force)
- Joint custody (The declaration of consent and the decision on custody is needed only if one of two persons having custody is able to present her-/himself in person)

Guardianship

- Sole declaration of consent and the official document of appointment

Application for a travel document for

Surname: _____ Date of birth: _____
 First Name _____ Place of origin: _____
 Address: _____

Mother / legal guardian

Surname: _____
 First name: _____
 Date of birth: _____
 Address: _____

Father / legal guardian

Surname: _____
 First name: _____
 Date of birth: _____
 Address: _____

Place / date: _____

Place / date: _____

Signature: _____

Signature: _____

With the signature the applicant respectively the legal representative(s) or legal guardian(s) confirm that all information is correct and the documents handed in are up to date and have the force of law. This form is valid only for the application of travel documents.