

FEDERAL DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

p.o.412.30

Notification
to the Signatory or Contracting States to the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora concluded at Washington on 3 March 1973

1. Withdrawal of reservations by Liechtenstein and Switzerland

- The Principality of Liechtenstein has declared, on 30 Mai 1988, that the reservation made with reference to the species Rana hexadactyla and Rana tigerina is withdrawn with effect on 1 June 1988.
- The Swiss Confederation has declared, on 30 Mai 1988, that the reservation made with reference to the species Rana hexadactyla and Rana tigerina is withdrawn with effect on 1 June 1988.

2. Acceptance of the Amendment of Bonn by Ecuador

- The Republic of Ecuador has deposited with the Swiss Government, on 13 Mai 1988, an instrument of acceptance of the amendment of Bonn of 22 June 1979 to article XI of the Convention. This amendment will enter into force for the Republic of Ecuador on 12 July 1988, according to article XVII, paragraph 3, of the Convention.
-

3. Acceptance of the Amendment of Gaborone by Zimbabwe, Belize, Senegal and the Philippines

- The Republic of Zimbabwe has deposited with the Swiss Government, on 8 February 1988, an instrument of acceptance of the amendment of Gaborone of 30 April 1983 to article XXI of the Convention.
- Belize has deposited with the Swiss Government, on 14 March 1988, an instrument of acceptance of the amendment of Gaborone of 30 April 1983 to article XXI of the Convention.
- The Republic of Senegal has deposited with the Swiss Government, on 28 March 1988, an instrument of acceptance of the amendment of Gaborone of 30 April 1983 to article XXI of the Convention.
- The Republic of the Philippines has deposited with the Swiss Government, on 17 Mai 1988, an instrument of acceptance of the amendment of Gaborone of 30 April 1983 to article XXI of the Convention.

The present notification is addressed to the Governments of the Signatory or Contracting States in conformity with article XXV, paragraph 2, of the Convention.

Bern, 20 June 1988