

FEDERAL DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

p.o.412.30
p.o.412.31.Eryt./Sierra L./Côte d'Iv./Com

Notification
to the Signatory and Acceding States to the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES), concluded in Washington on 3 March 1973

I. Accession

- On 24 October 1994, Eritrea deposited with the Swiss government an instrument of accession to the CITES, amended in Bonn on 22 June 1979, which, according to article XXII, paragraph 2, will enter into force for it 90 days after the deposit of the instrument, i.e. on 22 January 1995.
 - On 28 October 1994, the Republic of Sierra Leone deposited an instrument of accession to the CITES, amended in Bonn, which will enter into force for it on 26 January 1995.
 - On 21 November 1994, the Republic of Côte d'Ivoire deposited an instrument of accession to the CITES, amended in Bonn, which will enter into force for it on 19 February 1995.
 - On 23 November 1994, the Islamic Federal Republic of the Comoros deposited an instrument of accession to the CITES, amended in Bonn, which will enter into force for it on 21 February 1995.
-

II. Acceptance of the amendment of Gaborone by Eritrea

On 24 October 1994, Eritrea accepted the amendment, of 30 April 1983, to article XXI of the CITES.

The amendment doesn't enter into force yet.

The present notification is addressed to the governments of the Signatory and Acceding States in conformity with article XXV, paragraph 2, of the CITES.

Berne, 2 December 1994
