

FEDERAL DEPARTMENT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

P.242.45-FIDJI

Notification
to the Signatory and Acceding States to the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES), concluded in Washington on 3 March 1973

Accession by the Republic of Fiji

On 30 September 1997, the Republic of Fiji deposited with the Swiss Government an instrument of accession to the CITES. According to its article XXII, paragraph 2, the Convention, amended in Bonn on 22 June 1979, will enter into force for the Republic of Fiji 90 days after the deposit of the instrument of accession, i.e. on 29 December 1997.

The instrument of accession of the Republic of Fiji also included the acceptance of the amendment of article XXI of the Convention, adopted at Gaborone on 30 April 1983.

This amendment has not entered into force yet.

The present notification is addressed to the Governments of the Signatory and Acceding States in conformity with article XXV, paragraph 2, of the CITES.
