

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES & LINGUISTICS

FRENCH LANGUAGE CENTRE PRESENTS

What Does It Mean To Be A Swiss French- Speaking Author In 2024?

Where:

C674 - University Hall

When:

Friday March 22, 2024
1:00 pm - 2:30pm

Sandwiches & drinks will be served

Swiss French-Speaking Author Thomas Sandoz (1967)

Writer, epistemologist, Ph.D. in Psychology, Thomas Sandoz (www.ccdille.ch) has published prose, essays and academic books. He is the recipient of several distinctions, notably the 2001 Schiller Prize for his novel, Même en terre (2012). His latest novels include Malenfance (2014), Croix de bois, Croix de fer (2016) and most recently, La balade des perdus (2018), which was a Spring selection for the Renaudot Prize, 2018.

University of Lethbridge

