Certain documents may no longer be required if the person is already registered in the Swiss civil status register.

The original documents are submitted to the competent civil status authority in Switzerland and must not be older than six months. They can be returned on written request only prior to being sent to Switzerland.

Important: Photocopies and coloured scans legalised by a lawyer or another authority are not accepted. By request of the competent authorities in Switzerland, additional documents may be required, if necessary.

Legalisation

All foreign civil status documents must be legalised before being submitted to the Swiss representation. The apostille (Σφραγίδα της Χάγης) is affixed only by the Ministry of Justice and Public Order.

Translation

Documents that are not in a Swiss national language or in English must be translated. List of translators: <https://www.pio.gov.cy/en/translations/>
