Yervand Muradian

Just as the writer writes a story, photographer makes live story in one frame. One second of life in the picture comes alive for many years, gaining new life.

Sanan Aleskerov

Photographs change the essence of things. Fruits in photographs transform into human torsos. Animals share their sense of smell and foreboding with us. Trees speak of time, of beginnings and the end, of eternity. Heaven and hell are captured at 1/125 of a second. Love, birth and death in long and short exposures - these moments have lives and futures of their own. Symbols, signs, prophesy, legend - yesterday, today, and tomorrow - this is the real proof of life. This is photography.

Nicholas Berdysheff

In principle I don't want to limit myself to one particular theme. I take pictures of various genres - urban, portraits, nature, etc. Basically I do digital art and Motion Graphics I go in for photography because I like fixing things that interest me both from artistic and documentary sides
