

Ghana Marriage preparation for Switzerland

July 2022

Information

Please send the all documents as a scan in PDF format (good quality) by e-mail to the Swiss Embassy in Accra at accra@eda.admin.ch. After checking the documents, you will be asked to send the original documents (except your passport) to the Swiss Embassy in Accra. After examination of the documents, the originals will be sent to the competent authorities in Switzerland and will not be returned to you.

Documents to submit

Certified copy of entry in register of birth (not older than 6 months) together with baptism certificate or any other birth related evidence.

Copy of passport

In case you have never been married before:

Affidavit regarding civil status and residence before the present marriage, done by the Head of family of the foreign parent (usually biological father or mother) at a notary public/law firm and legalised by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Regional Integration. The declarant must present an identity document (with photo and signature – equal passport/identity card) when the affidavit is being done. A copy of the identity document must be added to the affidavit. The declaration must not be older than 6 months.

In case of previous marriage:

Divorcee: Court judgement regarding divorce.

Widow / Widower: Death certificate of deceased spouse

Affidavit regarding residence before the present marriage, done by the Head of family of the foreign spouse (usually biological father or mother) at the law firm mentioned overleaf. The declarant must bring an identity document when the affidavit is done.

Legalisation

All statutory declarations must be legalised by the MFA before being submitted to the Swiss representation:

Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Regional Integration

Post Office Box M53,
No. 5 Agostino Neto Rd. Liberation Avenue,
Airport Residential Area,
Accra - Ghana
<https://www.mfa.gov.gh>

Thorough verification

As a rule, foreign civil status documents to be submitted must undergo a thorough verification of their authenticity by an approved law firm mandated. To this end, please submit the following to the Swiss representation:

- Questionnaire regarding verification + legalisation of marriage documents and one passport photo (with white background)
- Questionnaire for person residing in Switzerland

Additional documents may be required, depending on the conclusions of a lawyer's expert advice or the requirements of the authorities concerned in Switzerland.

The approved law firm mandated may take several months to verify the civil status documents thoroughly. The conclusions of the firm's advice are not binding on the civil status authority concerned.

Fees for this preparatory procedure

The cost of the legalization of the documents will be communicated to you after the submission of the documents (scanned in PDF format). Local fees involved to be paid at the Embassy during submission of documents (see below for other option).

Total fee to be paid are between GHC 2780 and GHC 4800 out of which lawyer's fee depending on the region are between GHC 1600.00 and GHC 3815.00 for 3 documents. Additional documents will be charged (GHC 270.00 per piece). Fees are as of today and can change based on exchange rates.

The family members living in Switzerland have the possibility to pay an advance fee of around CHF 1000.00 in Switzerland; either to the Swiss authorities of the civil registrar (for Swiss nationals), or to the Police of foreign nationals of the Canton of residence (for foreigners living in Switzerland).

Any balance will be refunded by the concerned authorities in Switzerland or by the Embassy abroad after closing the case.
