- court order
- original birth certificate of the child after adoption
- certificate of nationality

- passport copy of parents

The original documents are submitted to the civil status authority concerned in Switzerland and must not be older than six months. They will not be returned. Photocopies are not accepted. Additional documents may be required if necessary.

Legalisation

All foreign civil status documents must be legalised with the Apostille of the Hague Convention of October, 5th 1961, before being submitted to the Swiss representation

Thorough verification

As a rule, foreign civil status documents to be submitted must undergo a thorough verification of their authenticity by an approved law firm mandated. To this end, please submit the following to the Swiss representation:

- declaration form concerning voluntary verification of foreign civil status documents, duly dated and signed
- advance on the cost of USD 1000 or XOF 600'000 for a thorough verification by a law firm approved by the Swiss representation, payable cash at the counter.

Additional documents may be required, depending on the conclusions of a lawyer's expert advice or the requirements of the authorities concerned in Switzerland.

The approved law firm mandated may take several months (6-8 months) to verify the civil status documents thoroughly. The conclusions of the firm's advice are not binding on the civil status authority concerned.

Fees

Entry of adoption in the Swiss civil status register is free of charge.

The costs resulting from a thorough verification of foreign civil status documents are to be paid via an advance. A definitive statement of the actual costs will be drawn up at the end of this process.
