- If travelling with spouse and/or children: two (2) A signed letter from spouse, photocopy of passport, marriage certificate & birth certificate of the children. (Each applicant to have his/her own application).
- Computer printout of air travel itinerary (Do not yet buy an airline ticket.
The Embassy cannot be held responsible for any financial losses in case you have to return it).

VISA PROCESSING FEE for adults: EURO 80.--
Visa fee is variable, depending on the exchange rate
(Please prepare the exact amount in Kenyan Shillings in order to avoid delay).

For foreign nationals who have valid residence status in Kenya and need a visa for Switzerland / Liechtenstein / Schengen States, must submit also a copy of the valid Re-Entry permit.

VISA PROCESSING AND ISSUANCE: Visa applications for work purpose will be transmitted for decision to the competent Swiss immigration authority where the applicant intends to reside. The Embassy is only allowed to issue an entry visa upon receipt of a positive decision or authorization. Please note that the normal processing period is 8-12 weeks at the minimum.

*The requirements above are applicable to Kenyan citizens and foreign nationals who have valid residence status in Kenya and require a visa to enter the SCHENGEN territory.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

In particular cases, the Embassy explicitly reserves the right

- to request more information or additional documents
- reject an application; individual assessments are made in every case. No right of issuance exists. The Embassy will not assume any responsibility should the visa application be rejected
- reject an application based on incorrect/false declarations or on forged or missing documents
- Foreign nationals residing in Kenya: a copy of valid Kenya Residence Permit. Please note that the validity must exceed the planned stay in the Member States with at least three months.

In addition to the above mentioned requirements, the application will be assessed on the criteria for which the relevant documents have been submitted:

- the purpose of the journey
- accommodation, or proof of sufficient means to cover accommodation
- assessment of sufficient means of subsistence both for the duration of the intended stay and for the return to the country of origin or residence

 The visa handling fee must be paid at the time the visa application is submitted to the Embassy. The fee is NOT reimbursed in case of the application finally being rejected, or withdrawn.

 In any case, it is NOT allowed to begin working without the necessary work or entry visa.

 The Embassy does not dispose of information on job vacancies in Switzerland / Liechtenstein, nor is in a position to provide assistance in terms of recruitment.

POLITE NOTICE

On the 5th April 2010 a new Visa regulation came into force for all Schengen Member States. If you want to apply for a Schengen visa, please consider the following:

1. All visa applications have to be submitted at least 15 calendar days before the date of the intended departure.
2. An application submitted less than 15 calendar days before the intended departure may be accepted, but the applicant should bear in mind that the final decision might be taken after the intended date of departure.
3. Visa applications cannot be submitted earlier than three months before the start of the intended visit.
4. It is the applicant's responsibility to take the necessary precautions to respect the deadlines where an appointment system is in place.
5. Normal processing time for visa applications can take up to 15 calendar days.
6. When further scrutiny is needed, the deadline may be extended up to a maximum of 30 calendar days. Exceptionally, where additional documentation is required, the deadline may be extended up to a maximum of 60 calendar days after the application has been considered admissible.
