Additional documents may be required if necessary.

Translation

Documents that are not in a Swiss national language or in English must be translated.

Legalisation

Statutory declarations, divorce decrees absolute or dissolution of registered partnership decisions must be legalised with an apostille before being submitted to the Swiss representation:

Apostille by the Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office \(UK\) or Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade \(Ireland\) (paper version only; digital apostille or printed out digital apostille are not accepted)

Fees

Entry of the marriage/partnership in the Swiss civil status register is free of charge

If any of the civil status events took place outside of the UK or Ireland, please inform us, as we would then need to check what documents are required. An advance payment may then be required and the process can take several months.

Important information

☒ Did you check all the applicable boxes above? Once you have done so, please submit the required documents to the Regional Consular Centre in London by:

- posting the above-mentioned documents to:
Regional Consular Centre, c/o Embassy of Switzerland, 16-18 Montagu Place,
London W1H 2BQ

Upon receipt of the relevant documents, we will translate and legalise the documents and forward them to the place of origin in Switzerland so that the family details can be updated in the Swiss central system (Infostar); this takes several weeks/ months.

Important: After the completed registration of the marriage and in case of a change of name, an application for a Swiss passport and/or identity card may be submitted through the website:

www.schweizerpass.ch / www.passeportsuisse.ch / www.passaportosvizzero.ch
