Cultivating collaboration: Parliamentary friendship associations promote cooperation between Switzerland and the United States of America

Social Design Thinking Competition with young female innovators
P.S. from Switzerland

It is playoff season in the National Hockey League and seven Swiss ice hockey players had the opportunity to compete for the Stanley Cup. Only six countries have more players represented in the NHL than Switzerland. But how did Switzerland become so important in the NHL? Check out our article to learn more about Swiss beginnings and breakthroughs on the ice!
