

COURTESY PERIOD for an international civil servant who is about to retire

This form has to be returned to the Swiss Mission with a letter from the HR department of the Organisation.

- In accordance with directives currently in force, the civil servant enjoys a courtesy period of two months after the termination of his/her employment. This courtesy period is granted automatically, without the express authorisation of the Swiss Mission.
- A courtesy period of a maximum of three months may be applied, using this form, for a civil servant resident in Switzerland who is about to retire, to enable him/her to arrange its departure abroad or pending the granting of a Swiss residence permit by the Cantonal authority. Any other requests for courtesy periods must be submitted by the International Organisation, with a detailed justification of the request.
- During the courtesy period, the civil servant does not enjoy customs privileges.
- On expiry of the courtesy period, the International Organisation must return the civil servant's legitimation card and, if applicable, those of the family members. The high ranking civil servant must return the diplomatic registration plates to the Vehicles Service of the Canton of residence.
