Accompanying text for FSD-Manual

Dear Reader,

The document 'Manual on Managing Cooperation in Financial Sector Development' can be opened with the Adobe Acrobat Reader. It provides a number of features to navigate through the document:

- The list of book-marks shows all chapters and annexes. Clicking on a book-mark in the list will take you to the concerned chapter or annex.
- Likewise clicking on the titles in the list of contents of the manual, page I will take you to the concerned chapter or annex. To return to the list of contents, use the related book-mark.
- All references to web-pages are active hyperlinks which open the concerned webpage or document.
- In some of the annexes you will find references to supporting documents, which can be opened by clicking the 'paper-clip' icons. The list of supporting documents can also be accessed by opening the list of attached documents (at the lower left of Acrobat screen).

We hope these features help you to get some inspiration from this manual.
